

ESRF NEWSLETTER

APRIL 1999

EUROPEAN SYNCHROTRON RADIATION FACILITY

N° 32

New insight into make-up used in Ancient Egypt: the x-ray diffraction pattern measured on BM16 reveals the recipes of the cosmetics made from synthetic and natural lead compounds to beautify and treat the eye. The micrograph of the powder preserved for 3500 years in this alabaster receptacle shows nicely faceted galena crystals (about 50 μm).

ISSN 1011-9310

THE NEWS MAGAZINE OF THE ESRF - ALSO AT <http://www.esrf.fr/info/science/newsletter>